

THE BRIDGEWATER BARN MEMBERSHIP AGREEMENT

The Barn is a fellowship of members, a brother and a sisterhood of concerned individuals, who have come together in love and freedom to discuss and to explore and develop new ways of thinking, and living based in awareness, truth, honesty and integrity in the Aquarian age.

When in doubt we try always to ask this question.

What would love do?

Member Pledges

1. I will treat others as I expect to be treated myself.
2. I will do no harm.
3. I will honor the first amendment of the constitution and humanity's fundamental rights and freedoms
 - to practice and express their religious and/or spiritual preferences.
 - to have independent thoughts and the freedom to express those thoughts orally and in writing without censorship by any outside entity.
 - to peacefully assemble.
 - to petition my government for a redress of grievances to correct violations, inconsistencies and misapplications of the Constitution.
4. I will honor and respect each member's complete sovereignty to decide for themselves who they are, where they will travel, what they believe in and how they will feed and care for their body, mind, spirit and their souls.
5. I understand that those who come here to provide services or information related to health and spiritual guidance do not do so in the capacity of licensed providers, but rather as caring private citizens. I understand that no 'doctor-patient' relationship exists among our members or our service providers.
6. I agree to indemnify and hold harmless
 - all providers of services at the Barn, other members, the owners and/or guests of the Barn from any and all liabilities unless deliberate harmful intent can be proven.
7. I pledge to work with other Barn members to develop and produce an annual Voting Report Card for our Washington delegation as well as an annual redress petition.
8. I will be loyal to other members and will endeavor to be available to them when requested.
9. I understand that I can withdraw from this Agreement and end my membership at any time by emailing bbmember2023@gmail.com or by submitting a written letter to Barn Management

10. All disputes arising under this Agreement shall be put in writing and will be put to the full vote our membership. For actions to occur 80% of said members must concur.

11. I enter into this Agreement of my own free will and acknowledge that I have read, understand, and agree to the above stated terms and will follow Barn Rules as described below.
